

Scenario	What might the person in the scenario want in a new community now and in the future?	How could the person in the scenario contribute to his/her new community now and in the future?
Scenario 1 I recently moved to Australia from China with my young son and partner. I want to get a job but don't speak English as well as I would like. I used to work as an engineer in China. I love art and taking long walks with my family.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Place to meet other people from China ▶ Place to learn English ▶ School for her son ▶ Transport ▶ Employment office ▶ Parks ▶ Library ▶ Childcare 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Pays taxes ▶ Might teach Chinese language to other people ▶ Work in the community to build new services. ▶ Helps other people who have moved from China
Scenario 2 I have lived in the same town all my life. I work in the local hospital as a nurse and love to play football on the weekends for the local club. My mum is in an aged care home not far from where I live, and I visit her every week. I live with my partner and the we love to go out to eat.
Scenario 3 I am thinking of moving to a new community that is clean, safe, fun, and affordable. Religion is very important to me. I work four days a week and will need to use public transport.
Scenario 4 I live with my wife and two children. Unfortunately, I was in a car accident and am no longer able to work as a builder. I am looking for work that I can do. Swimming is really helping me get better.

Explain why valuing diversity is important. Use examples from this worksheet to support your explanation.