

1. Research the details of different communities before deciding on your ideal community profile.
2. Community name: _____
3. Location: eg urban, rural, coastal or remote _____

Population: _____

Children: _____

Adults: _____

Over 70: _____

Male: _____

Female: _____

Where did you get your data?

Cultures represented in your population: _____

Geographic area: No more than 300 square kilometres

Main business: (eg farming, manufacturing, IT, tourism, government, mining) _____

4. Reflection:

Individual students explain why celebrating diversity is important to community wellbeing and cultural understanding.

5. Values

Decide on the top three values that are important in your community:

- ▶ Care and compassion
- ▶ Doing your best
- ▶ Fair go
- ▶ Freedom
- ▶ Honesty and Trustworthiness
- ▶ Integrity
- ▶ Respect
- ▶ Responsibility
- ▶ Understanding, Tolerance and Inclusion

Why did you choose these values?

6. Write a Community Charter

CITIZEN RIGHTS

- The right to feel safe from harm

CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITIES

- The responsibility to follow community rules and laws
- The responsibility to pay tax to fund services that protect citizens