

Ethical dilemma cards

Print one set of cards for each group of 4 students

A friend offers to give you the answers to an important class test being given tomorrow.

Before a game of soccer where you are goalie, your friend asks you to let a goal through so that their team can win the game.

An older person is standing in the bus as there are no seats left. You are tired after a long day at school.

Your friend is painting graffiti at the local skate park and asks you to help.

You see $50 fall out of the pocket of a customer in line before you.

You an ice cream and the shop worker gives you an extra $10 note in your change.

